GREETINGS FROM THE MAYOR:

On behalf of City Council, I would like to extend sincere greetings to all Steveston businesses, residents and visitors.

Now in its 27th year, Steveston Villager Business Directory continues to serve the Steveston community. The Villager is a publication dedicated to the promotion of Steveston businesses. It is a welcome and valuable resource for all who use it.

One of Richmond's many gems, Steveston has something to offer everyone. Visitors are often pleasantly surprised at the richness of offerings in this quaint seaside village. Both historic and picturesque, there are trails, dykes, natural parks and gardens, and a wide selection of amenities. One can stroll along the docks, purchase fresh seafood directly off the local fishermen's boats, enjoy the area's fine cuisine, visit a museum, or shop the unique galleries and boutiques.

This summer, the Steveston community will once again be celebrating its annual Steveston Salmon Festival. A well loved tradition since 1945, the Steveston Salmon Festival is a wonderful opportunity for the entire community to gather and celebrate Canada's birthday while at the same time, welcome visitors from other parts of Richmond, the Lower Mainland, and the world.

Best wishes to all the contributors and users of the Spring 2013 issue of the Steveston Villager Business Directory

World Class Top Notch Tattooing in Richmond BC, Steveston Tattoo Co.

Promising brightest colours and top notch tattooing, Steveston Tattoo Company is thrilled to have taken root in the historic fishing village of Steveston. Prior to opening the shop this last December 2011, business owner Ryan Halter has been at it since 98 and has worked eight years alongside mentor John "The Dutchman" at Dutchman Tattoos in Burnaby, His drawing and painting has been a lifelong passion and his background in graphic design shines through in his commitment to delivering strong, clean, effective tattooing. Jesse Strong is also a lifelong tattoo enthusiast. Having completed his apprenticeship with Vinnie Ruocco at New World Tattoo in Surrey at the age of 20, he has flourished in his experience and strives to integrate his urban street art influence with the dynamic tattoos he creates. Miles Kanne is the most recent addition to the team, with over 9 years in the industry. Miles got his start in Edmonton, Alberta working at Electric tattoo and Lucky Strike. With a love for Japanese and traditional tattooing, Miles puts his own illustrative fun flare into his work. With classic hand painted signage, and a strong inclination towards the traditional and timeless, Steveston Tattoo Company feels right at home in their neighborhood.

globe. Following all procedures required by Coastal Health to run a reputable and professional business, the shop is clean as a whistle with single use needles and gloves, and autoclave equipment for sterilization. With a combined clientele of long term tattoo collectors and first timers from all walks of life, Halter, Strong and Kanne look forward to continuing to provide their colourful flare and artistry to all who step through their door. They have had some local media attention since opening, and have received awards within our city for Best Tattoo Shop and runnerup Best New Business, but they are interested in spreading the word internationally.

The interior of the shop is vibrant and eclectic, with wall to wall collections of vintage artwork and antiques from around the

Beatmerchant Record Store - the Best selection of Records, CDs & DVDs

Frankie Neilson began his career as a young fresh-faced 17-year-old recording engineer at the Marquee Studios in London's Wardour Street which was situated behind the famous Marquee Club in Soho London's red light district before joining Elton John's record label DJM as Assistant A&R Manager for four years in 1974.

Frankie Neilson, Owner Of The Beatmerchant Record Store in Steveston

DJM was owned and run by Beatles publisher Dick James who was also responsible for discovering Elton John and this was a great opportunity for Frankie to learn the music business from the ground up before moving to Polydor Records UK A&R Department in 1979 where he worked with such artists as Paul Weller, The Jam, Ian Dury, 60's legend Billy Fury and his favourite group the Comsat Angels in the 80's. "I was so proud to work for Polydor Records as it was the label in the 60's who released albums by Jimi Hendrix, Cream and the Taste which I loved!"

Starting his own label Individual Records in the mid 80's Frankie released six 45 rpm records and two 12" records which have become collectable because nobody bought them!

Next he jumped over the big pond to Toronto before locating and settling in Vancouver, in British Columbia.

In 1999 Frankie started his own website www.beatmerchant.com and started selling music items through the website and on eBay where he has achieved over 750 customer recommendations, then in 2005 with the music industry in total decline he started his own record store, The Beatmerchant Specialty Record Store in Steveston Village, Richmond BC.

Flying in the face of everything that has happened in the music business lately such as ipods, copying and downloads he has built a loyal and dedicated following of customers in the historic and beautiful fishing village Steveston on the mighty Fraser River in Richmond, British Columbia, Canada.

Discover the Beauty of The Pier at London Landing

The hottest ticket Steveston Real Estate is marketing is pre-sale for The Pier at London Landing: Steveston's absolute waterfront. "We call this 'absolute waterfront' because these homes are located directly adjacent to the river - there's no road to cross," says Sean Lawson, the Steveston's Realtor who raised and educated in Richmond, as well as lived in Steveston for 25 years. "It's the type of setting you simply don't find very often."

www.thepierlifestyle.com

Sean and his team have been the sole marketing force behind the master-planned community of London Landing with The Pier aiming to be the feather in their cap: this project is the eighth and final piece of the well-loved residential and commercial area. Drawing inspiration from the community's heritage as a turn of the century fishing village, The Pier's architectural style blends the industrial look steel and concrete with the warmth and charm of brick. "It's rather like Granville Island meets Yaletown," Sean says with a smile."

Sean is passionate about all things Steveston. He explains how The Pier has been exclusively offered to locals prior to advertising in Richmond and Vancouver-wide publications: "Response so far has been phenomenal," Sean says. "People see the quality — standard details like marble counters in the bathrooms, top of the line kitchen appliances, and plenty of built-ins. Our goal is, quite simply, to offer the best homes in a mixed-use community anywhere in Richmond."

Sean believes sharing a sense of pride is one of the greatest things one can hope for in a community and along with his team, Sean aspires to nurture that Steveston spirit by continuing to share his expertise, offer exemplary customer service and provide an inviting and informative storefront for you to stop in and glean some local knowledge. The Steveston Real Estate office is located at 12235 No 1 Road in the heart of Steveston Village, and open daily.

Art

is an Active Member with the Federation of Canadian Artists and is also a member of the Richmond Artists Guild. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree from UBC and attended Emily Carr University of Art & Design. She has also participated in several collage, acrylic painting and abstract art workshops. Prior to becoming an artist, Jodie spent over twelve years in the publishing field where she held positions in Vancouver and Toronto. When her son, Sam, was born in 2002, Jodie and her husband Jeff decided to head west and put down roots in Richmond, BC.

Painting mainly in acrylics, her work is characterized by a strong graphic design element, bold use of colour, and dramatic contrasts of light and dark. She often works intuitively with colour, shape and design, letting the composition form during the artistic process. Contemporary Canadian artists who have influenced her work include Nicholas Bott, Cameron Bird, Donna Baspaly, Mike Svob and Brittani Faulkes. Canadian icons who provide ongoing inspiration include Emily Carr, Lawren Harris and J.E.H. MacDonald.

"Evening in the village", a wonderful painting done by Jodie. Very popular and recently sold.

Why does Gateway Theatre love Steveston?

Because Steveston residents are our biggest supporters. That's right, for over twenty years, more folks from V7E have bought tickets to Gateway shows than any other postal code in Metro Vancouver. So we're thrilled to invite you to join us again for a season that will blow you away, transport you to faraway lands, make you clutch your seat a little bit tighter, and literally make you feel like you're flying.

You may have heard we have a new Artistic Director. Jovanni Sy's first selections for us include four captivating Canadian plays, three BC premieres, award-winning dramas from Calgary and Toronto, a hilarious comedy from France, and, of course, a beloved musical to share with your family over the holidays.

Visit us at www.gatewaytheatre.com to watch a video preview of next season's first show, the amazing "Highest Step in the World" and read about all the plays we have in store for you.

We need your continuing support to ensure Gateway can bring you quality professional theatre so close to home. So please call the Box Office to purchase season tickets from as little as $68: 604-270-1812. Your subscription ensures you have the best seats, the lowest prices, free parking passes, exclusive and automatic entry into prize draws, invitations to special events & receptions, free ticket exchanges and more. Season tickets are on sale now, tickets for individual shows will be available Sept. 3rd.

All sausages at D Original Sausage Haus are handcrafted by a 5th generation sausage maker

Jens Hertha, the owner's long-time dream was to bring high quality, hand crafted German sausages to a new audience in Canada. A long-time Steveston resident, it was only natural to kick off the vision by bringing his fine wares to the discerning Steveston community that was sure to appreciate them. The shop already has several regulars who are delighted that they no longer have to make the trip over to Granville Island for artisan sausages. D Original Sausage Haus is proud to contribute to the Steveston community with locally sourced products, the quality is evident in the unbelievable flavour of their sausages – wholesome, meaty, natural. And what begins in Steveston doesn't stay in Steveston – D Original Sausage Haus hopes to expand to other locations soon.

D Original Sausage Haus is located at #130 - 12000 First Avenue @ Chatham Street, closed on Monday.

ANAF 284 Opens New Unit In Steveston

The Army, Navy and Air Force Unit 284 club opened its new clubhouse on June 29th, 2012. Members are impressed with the spacious digs, built adjacent to a new Seniors Housing Complex on the old site at 105 - 11900 No. 1 Road. The long wait is over for club members, who have been using temporary facilities since 2009, when the old building was taken down. A long time Steveston fixture, Unit 284 celebrated its 66th anniversary this year.

Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans "Shoulder to Shoulder" service since 1840 Incorporated in 1917 and extended by Acts of Parliament of Canada. In 1946, thirty Steveston area veterans approached the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans in Canada to open a Veterans Club in Steveston. Now, in 2012 – you do not have to have a military service background in order to come out and help the ANAF with the community support it provides. Each year the ANAF gives thousands of dollars to community organizations. They also sponsor educational scholarships for local Richmond students to pursue their post-secondary education. If you are interested in helping, then become a member. Please drop by for a membership application.

When the new ANAF clubhouse rose from the ground, it brought with it the Maple Residence, a 144 unit seniors' independent living facility.

If you have any questions about the ANAF clubhouse hours or services, call 604-277-7350. You may also contact them through their e-mail, anaf284b@telus.net. Information about the Maple Residences can be found on their website: www.themapleresidences.com.
